PITTSFORD CENTRAL SCHOOL
PITTSFORD, NEW YORK

YOU CAN'T GO HOME AGAIN

A quirk of the human being is that he is a most forgetful animal. His most distraught days can become clouded by time, and their countenance can seem somehow more peaceful, more full of life in retrospect. Thus he can pluck from his memory any given period of his life and remember it as "the good old days." The pain of responsibility or lack of it, the emotional inner quarrels that haunt us all — these more uncomfortable aspects remain buried in his unconscious, while a daily cup of black coffee, a group of good friends, a romance peeks out to remind him of the gentle and picturesque life he led.

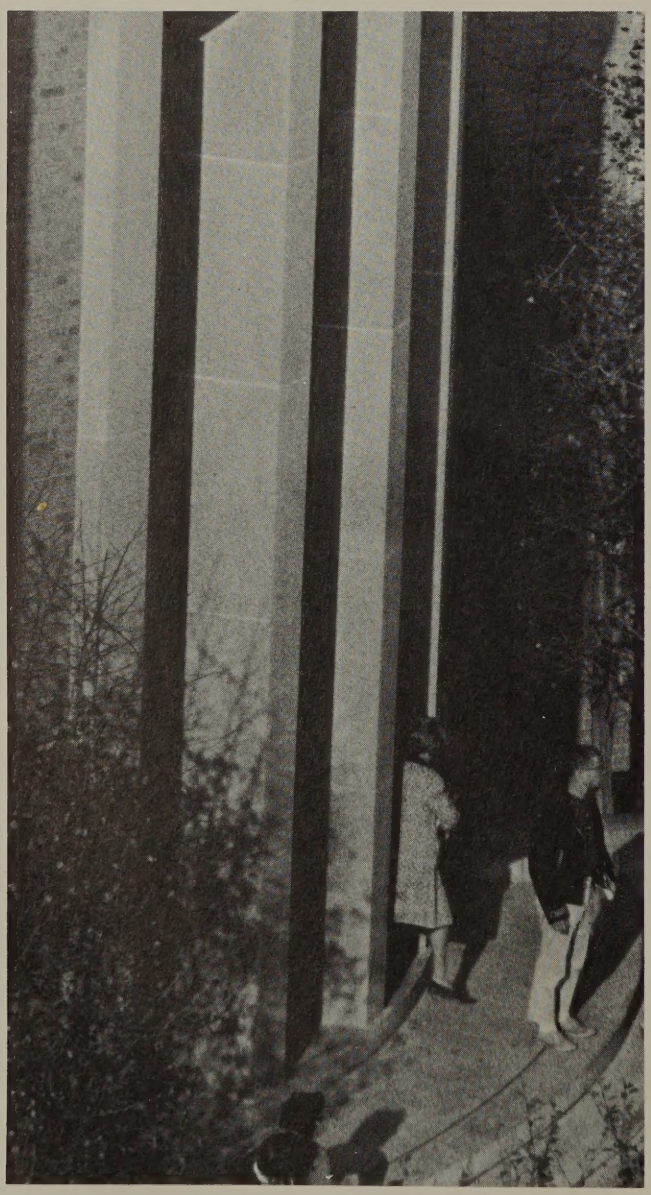

High School is one period of our lives that we remember with special fondness. As adolescents our emotional pain, our lack of understanding of reality, our struggle to live at peace with others is more trying than before or after. Our personalities are torn by a gap between physical and mental maturity. But our way of life is rivaled by no other. When we open our yearbook and see ourselves strolling down a school hallway, enjoying an activity, talking with a friend, the agony of adolescence will elude our recollection.

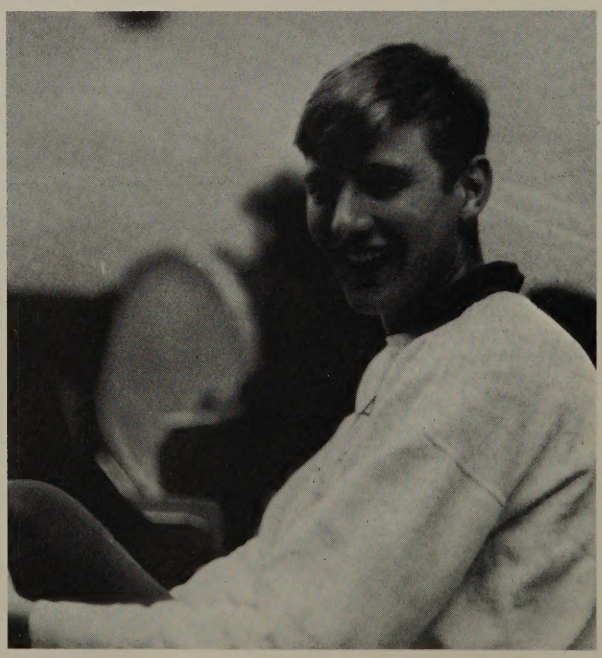

The purpose of a yearbook is to make this one-sided affair of memory more poignant, at the same time sifting out unhappy thoughts and presenting the good in a joyous outpouring.

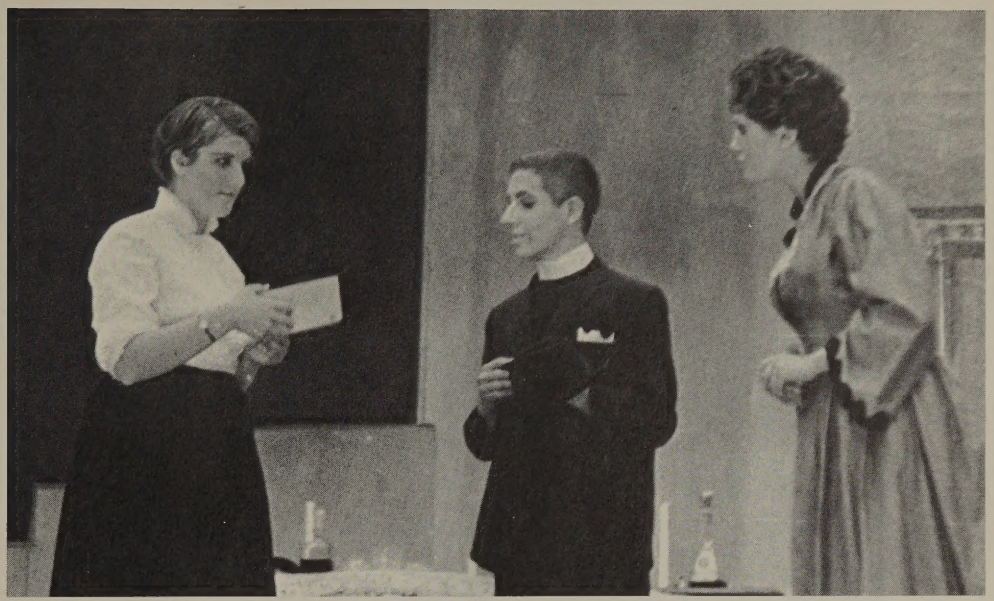

We have tried to make this yearbook more directly thoughtful, more significant in its nostalgia, than others. A picture of a close friend or a teacher, or of a situation or place, has its own special impact on the memory. It leaps from the page into the mind, weaving a momentary spell of longing intoxication. To grasp consciously for happiness in these few remaining days of high school would be futile. But we hope that when this book is reopened many years hence, this part of your life may creep back to give a moment of warmth, a vestige of joy, a split-second return home — to the life we can never lead again.

Ask not what your country
can do for you —
Ask what you can do
for your country.

"We in this country, in this generation,
are — by destiny rather than choice —
the watchman on the walls of world freedom.

We ask, therefore, that we may be worthy of our power and responsibility —
that we may exercise our strength with wisdom and restraint —
and that we may achieve
in our time and for all time the ancient vision of peace on earth, good will toward men."

John F. Kennedy

From his undelivered speech,
November 22, 1963

ADMINISTRATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education spends many hours each year in the study of our educational program. Its aim is the establishment of policy for the direction of the entire school system.

During the past year, we know that the Board has held many educational meetings with members of the school staff. We know too, that the members are busy with plans for a new building program. Our class wishes to thank each of them for their efforts to keep our school among the very best.

SENIORS

Dear Class of 1964:

Your senior year has passed by all too quickly. I'm sure that you share this sentiment with me. However, it is most significant that this year and past years have been marked by steady accomplishment. Graduation concludes this phase of your performance, but it is only a pause in the master plan for developing your potential to its fullest.

The class of 1964 is the largest to graduate from Pittsford High School. Its size is indicative too of the great reservoir of talent that resides within. Academics, athletics, dramatics, creative writing, art, music, and other fields of endeavor feel the beneficial impact of your many contributions. We thank you for all of this and for imparting guidelines to those who follow.

As the future unfolds itself, continue to apply your qualities of optimism, enthusiasm, and sense of responsibility to the tasks that arise. The adult world needs your capacity for achievement.

Set your goal high and ready boldly for it.

Most sincerely,

Arnold T. Carlson

TEENAGE DIPLOMATS

We have found that the American Field Service provides a unique opportunity to meet people from all over the world and to exchange ideas and customs. Each of us had a wonderful and unforgetable experience, and we are proud to be a part of the attempt to bring greater friendship and understanding among the peoples of the world. We would like to thank all those who made this program possible.

"Kiitos Paljon!" Carol Simmons, AFS to Finland

"Tack sà mycket!" Tom Lilja, AFS from Sweden

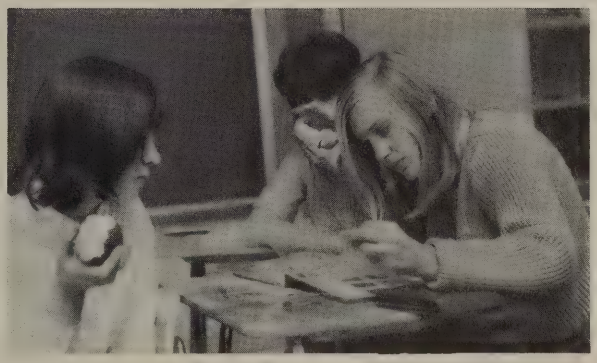

"Vielen Dank!" Lily Spring, AFS from Switzerland

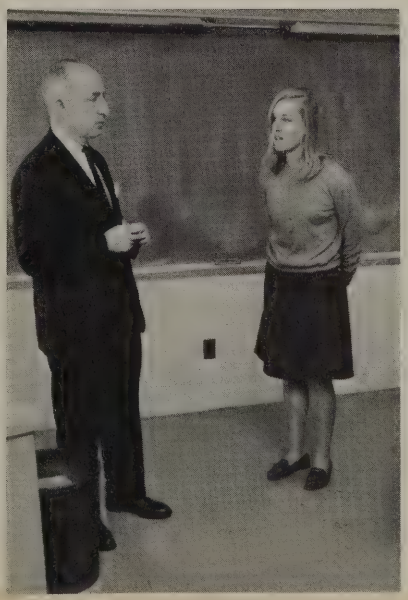

HILIGHTS

The 1964 Hi-Lights staff extends its thanks to everyone who expended time and effort on the yearbook publication, and as we struggled to identify pictures, check spelling, and type copy. We appreciate the patience of the administration and faculty during the three-day chaos of photography. Our special gratitude is extended to Mr. Kreiser, who spent many hours after school and on Saturdays planning with us. We hope the 1964 Hi-Lights will preserve an enduring remembrance of the events of this year and, in broader perspective, of those years of our life that we now leave, feeling both anticipation and regret.

Rochester is sometimes referred to as "the city that has everything." In business, industry and the professions, this is especially true. No matter what kind of a career appeals to you, there is an excellent chance that you can begin it right here. And the beginning is half the battle won.

It goes without saying that the first step is your formal education — as much as you can get. Employers look for this first. The next thing they look for is "brightness." And one key to "brightness" is how much you actually know about the kind of work you're going after. This is something you don't inherit from anybody. It is information you gather in advance for yourself — from parents, teachers, counselors, and friends. Most important — employers themselves are always ready to explain their standards and requirements.

Your idea of the best career for your particular talents may change, as you acquire more and more information about different fields of work. But when you decide what you want to do, some employer in the Rochester area will really want you — because by analyzing yourself, you have made yourself valuable.
